(first part only)

- 2) I will be glad and much rejoice in thee, O Lord, most high:
And make my tongue extol thy name above the starry sky.
- 3) For that my foes are driven back, and turned unto flight:
They fall down flat and are destroyed, by the great force and might.
- 4) Thou hast revenged all my wrong, my grief, and all my grudge,
Thou dost with justice hear my cause most like a righteous judge.
- 5) Thou dost rebuke the heathen folk, and wicked so confound:
That afterward the memory of them cannot be found.
- 6) My foes thou hast made good despatch, and all their towns destroyed:
Thou hast their fame with them defaced through aal the world so wide.
- 7) Know thou hat he which is above for ever more shall reign:
And in the seat of equity true judgment will maintain.
- 8) With justice he will keep and guide the world and every wight:
And so will yield with equity to every man his right.
- 9) He is protector of the poor, what time they be oppressed:
He is in all adversity their refuge, and their rest.
- 10) All the that know thy holy name therefore shall trust in thee:
For thou forsakest not their suit, in their necessity.
