Je - su Lord, that ma - dest me, and with Thy bless - èd Blood has Je - su for Thy woun - dè[s] [hurt] on feet and on Thine hand - ès

Blood has hand - ès bought, for - give that I have griev - èd Thee with word, and two, O make me meek and low of heart, and Thee to will, and e'en with thought. Je - su, in Whom is all my trust, love as I should do. Je - su, keep them that are good, that died up - pon the blood - dy tree, with - draw my a - mend them that have griev - èd Thee, and send them heart from flesh - ly lust, and from all world - ly van - i - ty. fruits of earth - ly food as each man need - eth in his de - gree.
