Tr. 5 10

1. Not from the dust afflictions grow, Nor troubles rise by chance, But we are born to care and woes, A sad inheritance, A sad in - her - i - tance.

C. 2. As sparks break out from burning coals, And still are upwards borne, So grief is rooted in our souls, And man grows lip to mourn, And man grows lip to mourn.

T. 8 3. Yet with my God I leave my cause, And trust his promised grace; He rules me by his well-known laws Of love and righteousness, Of love and righteousness.
4. Not all the pains that e'er I bore Shall spoil my future peace, For death and hell can do no more Than what my Father please, Than what my Father please..
