Krzysztof Daletski (2022)

gitaro

1. Ki - e

English translation:

1. Where someone begins to be silent in a storm of hate speech,
And is not afraid of the own ones, does not shout with them:
There peace can start coming.
2. Where someone begins to speak when connections have been broken,
And is not afraid of the friends, does not mind:
There peace can start coming.
3. Where someone begins to understand the needs of the other side,
And is looking for a settlement, and does not stop:
There peace can start coming.
