

Psalm 15

5 10 15

Tr. 1. Lord, who's the hap - py man that may To thy blest courts re - pair? Not, stranger-like, to vi - sit them, But to in - ha - bit there?
2 Tis he, whose eve - ry thought and deed By rules of vir - tue moves; Whose generous tongue disdains to speak The thing his heart disproves.

C. 3. Who never did a slan - der forge His neighbor's fame to wound; Nor hearken to a false report, By malice whispered round.
4 Who vice in all its pomp and power Can treat with just ne - glect; And pi - e - ty, though clothed in rags. Re - li - gious - ly respect.

T. 5. Who to his plight - ed vows and trust Has ev - er firm - ly stood; And though he pro - mise to his loss, He makes his promise good.
6. The man, who by this stea - dy course Has hap - pi - ness en - sured, When earth's foundation shakes shall stand, By Providence secured.
