

Copeland

Tr.

T.

B.

O blessed souls are they Whose sins are covered o'er! Di - vine - ly blest, to whom the Lord Imputes their guilt no more.

Tr.

T.

B.

They mourn their follies past, Their lips and lives without deceit,
And keep their hearts with care; Shall prove their faith sincere. While I con -

Tr.

T.

B.

- cealed my guilt, I felt the fest'ring wound; Till I confessed my sins to thee, And ready pardon found. Let sin - ners learn to pray, Let

Tr.

T.

B.

saints keep near the throne; Our help, in times of deep dis - tress, Is found in God a - lone.

Edited by B. C. Johnston, 2016

1. First and second staves exchanged.

2. Measure 10, Treble: originally half-eighth-two sixteenths, changed to half-quarter-two eighths (as in m. 42).