

Wanderer's song

Justinus Kerner
trans. John Oxenford

Wanderlied

Robert Schumann
(1810-56)

vivace

Soprano f Once more fill the gob-let with wine_ spark-ling bright, To Alto f Once more fill the gob-let with wine_ spark-ling bright, To Tenor f Once more fill the gob-let with wine_ spark-ling bright, To Bass f Once more fill the gob-let, To Piano vivace

f

5

S those I am leav - ing my heart_ I will plight; Fare - well, all a-round me, fare -

A those I am leav - ing my heart I will plight; Fare - well, all a-round me, fare -

T those I am leav - ing my heart I will plight; Fare - well, all a-round me, fare -

B those I am leav - ing my heart I will plight; Fare - well, all a-round me, fare - well to my home, f I long in the wide world a - far off to roam.

10

S

A
well to my home, f I long in the wide world a - far off to roam.

T
well to my home, f I long in the wide world a - far off to roam.

B
well to my home, f I long in the wide world a - far off to roam.

f sf

15

S f The sun does not shine on this one spot a-lone, He lights earth and o-ccean from

A
f The sun does not shine on this one spot a-lone, He lights earth and o-ccean from

T
f The sun does not shine on this one spot a-lone, He lights earth and o-ccean from

B
He lights earth and o-ccean from

f

S zone un-to zone; The wave does not cease where it leaves the white strand, But rit.

A zone un-to zone; The wave does not cease where it leaves the white strand, But rit.

T zone un-to zone; The wave does not cease where it leaves the white strand, But rit.

B zone un-to zone; The wave does not cease where it leaves the white strand, But rit.

S a tempo winds rest-less drive it with might thro' the land. f Like

A a tempo winds rest-less drive it with might thro' the land. f Like

T a tempo winds rest-less drive it with far off to roam. f Like

B a tempo winds rest-less drive it with might thro' the land.

20

25

S clouds, too, the birds they must wan- der a - lone, But wher-e'er they tar - ry they

A clouds, too, the birds they must wan- der a - lone, But wher-e'er they tar - ry they

T clouds, too, the birds they must wan- der a - lone, But wher-e'er they tar - ry they

B But wher-e'er they tar - ry they

S sing their old song; And like them, the wan-d'rer his ban- ner un - furled, He

A sing their old song; And like them, the wan-d'rer his ban- ner un - furled, He

T sing their old song; And like them, the wan-d'rer his ban - ner un - furled, He

B sing their old song; And like them, the wan-d'rer his ban- ner un - furled, He 30

a tempo più moderato

S fol-lows the mo-ther, the wan-der-ing world. p But fol-lows the mo-ther, the wan-der-ing world.

A

T
fol-lows the mo-ther, the wan-der-ing world.

B a tempo
fol-lows the mo-ther, the wan-der-ing world.

più moderato p

35

S
far off he's greet-ed by notes sweet and clear, The birds of his own home they

A

T

B

S bring him good cheer; The flow-'rets they seem like old friends as of yore Their

A *p*The flow-'rets they seem like old friends as of yore Their

T *p*The flow-'rets they seem like old friends as of yore Their

B *p*The flow-'rets they seem like old friends as of yore Their

S 40 fra-grance it fol- lowed from shore un-to shore. mf The birds knew his cot - tage, his

A fra-grance it fol - lowed from shore un-to shore.

T fra-grance it fol - lowed from shore un-to shore.

B fra-grance it fol - lowed from shore un-to-shore.

S own_ coun-try's air, The flow - 'rets a dorn - ed his maid_ true and fair; *f*And

A *f*And

T
*f*And

B *f*And rit.

45
S
rit.
love e'er es-corts him and lends him a hand, And home thus he finds in the most dis-tant land, and

A
rit.
love e'er es-corts him and lends him a hand, And home thus he finds in the most dis-tant land, and

T
rit.
love e'er es-corts him and lends him a hand, And home thus he finds in the most dis-tant land, and

B
rit.
love e'er es-corts him and lends him a hand, And home thus he finds in the most dis-tant land, and rit.

50

S rit.
home this he finds in the most dis - tant land.

A rit.
home this he finds in the most dis - tant land.

T rit.
home this he finds in the most dis - tant land.

B rit.
home this he finds in the most dis - tant land.

S tempo Imo
*f*Once more fill the gob-let with wine_ spark-ling bright, To

A *f*Once more fill the gob-let with wine_ spark-ling bright, To

T *f*Once more fill the gob-let with wine_ spark-ling bright, To

B *f*Once more fill the gob-let with wine_ spark-ling bright, To tempo Imo

55

S those I am leav - ing my heart_ I will plight; Fare - well, all a-round me, fare -

A those I am leav - ing my heart I will plight; Fare - well, all a-round me, fare -

T those I am leav - ing my heart I will plight; Fare - well, all a-round me, fare -

B those I am leav - ing my heart I will plight; Fare - well, all a-round me, fare -

60

S well_ to my home, rit. a tempo rit. I long in the wide world a - far off to roam, ff I

A well_ to my home, rit. a tempo rit. I long in the wide world a - far off to roam, ff I

T well to my home, rit. a tempo rit. I long in the wide world a - far off to roam, ff I

B well_ to my home, rit. a tempo rit. I long in the wide world a - far off to roam, ff I

S a tempo
 long in the wide_ world a - far off to roam._____

A a tempo
 long in the wide_ world a - far off to roam._____

T a tempo
 long in the wide_ world a - far off to roam._____

B a tempo
 long in the wide_ world a - far off to roam._____

a tempo ff

65

70