

Wilt thou, unkind

John Dowland
1562-1626

f (p)

S. 1. Wilt thou, un-kind, thus reave me Of my heart, of my heart
2. If no de-lays can move thee, Life shall die, death shall live
3. Yet be thou mind-ful ev-er, Heat from fire, fire from heat

A. 1. Wilt thou, un-kind, un-kind, thus reave me Of my heart, of my
2. If no de-lays, de-lays can move thee, Death shall live, death shall
3. Yet be thou mind-ful, mind-ful ev-er, Fire from heat, fire from

T. 1. Wilt thou, un-kind, un-kind, thus reave me Of my heart, of my heart, of my
2. If no de-lays, de-lays can move thee, Life shall die, life shall die, death shall
3. Yet be thou mind-ful, mind-ful ev-er, Heat from fire, heat from fire, fire from

B. 1. Wilt thou, un-kind, thus reave me Of my heart, of my
2. If no de-lays can move thee, Life shall die, death shall
3. Yet be thou mind-ful ev-er, Heat from fire, fire from

And so leave me, and so leave me? me? Fare-well, fare-
Still to love thee, still to love thee. thee.
None can se-ver, none can se-ver. -ver.

heart And so leave me? me? Fare-well, fare-well.
live Still to love thee. thee.
heat None can se-ver. -ver.

heart And so leave me? me? Fare-well, fare-well.
live Still to love thee. thee.
heat None can se-ver. -ver.

heart And so leave me? me? Fare-well, fare-well.
live Still to love thee. thee.
heat None can se-ver. -ver.

-well. But yet or ere I part (O cru-el), Kiss me sweet, kiss me sweet, sweet my jew-el. Fare-jew-el.

But yet or ere I part (O cru-el), Kiss me sweet, kiss me sweet, sweet my je-wel. Fare-well, -el.

But yet or ere I part (O cru-el), Kiss me, kiss me sweet, my jew-el. Fare-well, -el.

But yet or ere I part (O cru-el), Kiss me sweet, kiss me sweet, kiss me, my jew-el. Fare-well, -el.