D. C XII.

The printer's V's have been changed to U's where appropriate. The source is comprised of eight partbooks.

Editorial method: Original part names, choir designations, time signature and note durations have been retained. Clefs have been modernised, with originals appearing in prefatory staves. The overall range of each vocal part is given in black stemless notes before the initial time signature, to which the music has been barred. The pitch has been lowered by a perfect fourth in deference to the chiavi alti.

Editorial accidentals appear above the staff, whereas courtesy accidentals appear in parentheses. Ligatures are shown by use of a square bracket above the staff.

Text and translation:

*Gaudens gaudebo in Dominum et exultabit anima mea in Deo meo, qui induit me in vestimentis salutis,
et indumento iustitiae circumdedit me,
quasi sponsum decoratum corona,
et quasi sponsam ornatum monilibus suis,
sicut enim terra profert germen suum,
et sicut hortus semen suum germinat, sic Dominus Deus germinabit iustitiam, et laudem coram universis gentibus.*

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
my soul shall in joyful in my God;
for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation,
he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness,
as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments,
and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.
11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Original spelling and punctuation have been retained. Ditto marks in the source underlay have been expanded using italics.

Source: Isaiah 61:10-11. Translation taken from KJV.

Liturgical use: Introit for the feast of the Immaculate Conception. The introit contains a slightly different text, namely Isaiah 61:10, and Ps. 29:2.

Critical notes: Comprised of source readings not retained in the Edition. In the order bar, part, object, comment.
