

Words: C. von Schmidt (1768-1854),
transl. DB-D (vv. 1-3, 7)

O Come, Little Children (Ihr Kinderlein, kommet)

Melody: J.A.P.Schulz, 1794
(1747-1800), harm. DB-D.

S
A

1. O come, lit--- tle child--- ren,----- Come one and all, _____ O
2. O see in that man--- ger With--- in that dark stall, _____ The
3. He lies there, a Ba----- by, In straw and in hay, _____ With
4. So take to your hearts, then, That hea--- ven--- ly Boy, _____ The

T
B

come to the man--- ger In Beth----- le --- hem's stall; _____ For there you will bright--- est of beams shines To daz--- zle us all. _____ Oh clothed all in Ma--- ry and Jo----- seph To watch and to pray. _____ The mar--- vel--- ling vic--- tim and sac---ri- fice Who dies to bring joy. _____ He's Je--- sus, our see On this most sac--- red night, _____ God's gift to man--- kind, Our white Lies the heav--- en--- ly Child, _____ More love--- ly than an--- gels Up shep--- herds Kneel close by the Boy, _____ While from the night sky, _____ An-- gels Sav--- iour, Who's born to van--- quish sin: _____ O take Him to your hearts now, The joy and de--- light.

in hea--- ven's height.
sing in their joy.
Sav----- iour with--- in.

Copyright © 2004 Douglas Brooks-Davies, editor. Edition in accordance with the terms of the CPDL licence (<http://www.cpdl.org>)
and may be freely performed, downloaded, etc.
(Brooks-Davies, European Carols series)