1. Fair as a blooming, tender flower Amidst the desert blows; So, slighted and despised of men, The heavenly Savior rose, The heavenly Savior rose.

2. The Savior comes! No outward pomp bespeaks his presence nigh;
No earthly beauties in Him shine
To draw the carnal eye.

4. With sinners in the dust He lay,
The rich a grave supplied;
Unspotted was His blameless life,
Unstained by sin He died.

6. He died to bear the guilt of men
That sin might be forgiven;
He lives to bless them and defend
And plead their cause in heaven.

3. They held Him as condemned by heaven,
An outcast from his God;
While for their sins He groaned and bled
Beneath his Father's rod.

5. His soul rejoicing shall behold
The purchase of his pain;
And every sinner by Him saved
Shall bless Messiah's reign.
