The musical score consists of six staves. The top four staves represent a four-part choir: Soprano (S.), Alto (A.), Tenor (T.), and Bass (B.). Each choir part has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The bass part has a bass clef. The organ part, located below the choir staves, also has a bass clef. Measure 2 begins with a forte dynamic (f). The choir sings the lyrics "Herr! All - mächt - ti - ger, im Staub vor Dir be - kla - gen wir". The organ provides harmonic support with sustained notes and chords. Measures 3 and 4 continue with the same melody and organ accompaniment. Measure 5 begins with a piano dynamic (p), followed by a forte dynamic (f), and then a piano dynamic again. The organ continues to provide harmonic support throughout the piece.

The musical score consists of five staves. The first four staves represent vocal parts: Soprano (S.), Alto (A.), Tenor (T.), and Bass (B.). The vocal parts sing a four-line German text: "Meer voll Er - bar - men strömt aus Dei - nen Ar - men nie - der". The bass staff (B.) has a different melody than the other three. The fifth staff represents an Organ (Org.) part, featuring harmonic chords and sustained notes. The key signature is one flat, and the time signature is common time (indicated by '24'). Measure lines connect the vocal parts, while the organ part is connected by a single horizontal line.

This musical score page contains five staves. The top four staves are vocal parts: Soprano (S.), Alto (A.), Tenor (T.), and Bass (B.). The soprano and alto sing in unison, while the tenor and bass provide harmonic support. The organ part (Org.) is located below the vocal staves. The music is in common time with a key signature of one sharp. Measure 118 begins with the soprano and alto singing "Lie - be Dir Hul - di-gung dar." The tenor and bass enter with a sustained note. The soprano and alto continue with "Glo - - - - ri - a," followed by a dynamic instruction "f". The tenor and bass respond with "Glo - - - - ri - a, glo -". The soprano and alto then sing "glo - - - - ri - a in ex - cel - sis". The bass and organ provide harmonic support throughout this section. The bass and organ continue to play through the end of the page, providing harmonic support to the sustained notes of the soprano and alto.

This musical score page contains five staves. The top four staves represent vocal parts: Soprano (S.), Alto (A.), Tenor (T.), and Bass (B.). Each of these staves has a single note head on the first staff, followed by a series of rests. The bass staff (B.) includes a '8' below the staff, indicating an eighth-note equivalent. The bottom staff is for the Organ (Org.), which is grouped with a brace. The organ part consists of a melodic line with various note heads and rests, accompanied by harmonic chords. Dynamics are indicated above the organ staff: 'p' (pianissimo) over the first measure and 'pp' (pianississimo) over the third measure. The vocal parts begin singing at the end of the organ's melodic line, with lyrics 'Herr! mei - nes Glau - bens Licht!' appearing below the staff. The tempo is marked '140' at the beginning of the section.
