

Horatio Bonar
(1808-1889)

Light of the world!

Arthur Henry Mann
(1850-1929)

Wilton (11 6. 11 6)

1. Light of the world! for e - ver, e - ver shin - ing, There
2. Thou hast a - risen, but Thou de - scen - dest ne - ver; To -
3. Night vi - sits not Thy sky, nor storms, nor sad - ness; —
4. Light of the world! un - dim - ming and un - set - ting! O is no change in Thee; True light of day shines as the past; All that Thou Day fills up all its blue, Un - fad - ing shine each mist a - way; Ba - nish the Life, all joy and health en - shrin - ing, Thou canst not fade nor flee.

wast Thou art, and shalt be e - ver, Bright - ness from first to last.
beau - ty, and un - fal - tering glad - ness, And love for e - ver new.
fear, the false - hood, and the fret - ting, Be our un - chang - ing Daay.