

36 41

tes vir - tú - - - tes vir - tú - - - re - - - dén - tes vir - tú - - -
 Nos re-dén - - - tes vir - tú - - -

42 47

ti - bus ti - bus ti - bus ti - bus

Based on Das Chorwerk #9, edited by Rudolf Gerber, Berlin, 1931. Musica ficta, text underlay and translation by John Hetland and The Renaissance Street Singers. Notation here is a major third higher than the original.

The text is the fourth verse of the hymn "Exsultet caelum laudibus"

Quórum praecépto súbditur
 Sálus et lánguor ómnium
 Sanáte aégros móribus
 Nos redéntes virtútibus.

Ye to whose command is subject
 The health and sickness of all,
 Heal the ill in spirit,
 Increasing us in virtue.