

Psalm 90

Tr. 5 10 15

1. Thou, Lord, hast been our sure de - fense, Our place of ease and rest: In all times past, yea so long since, As cannot be expressed.
2. Or there was made mountain or hill, The earth or world a - broad: From age to age, and always still, For ever thou art God.

C. 3. Instruct us, Lord, to know and try How long our days remain; That then we may our hearts ap - ply True wisdom to at - tain.
4. Return, O Lord, how long wilt thou Forth on in wrath proceed? Show fa - vor to thy ser - vants now, And help them at their need.

T. 5. Refresh us with thy mercy soon, And then our joy shall be: All time so long as life doth last, In heart rejoice will we.
6. As thou hast plagu-ed us be - fore, Now al - so make us glad: And for the years wherein full sore Af - flic - tion we have had.

B. 7. O let thy work and power ap - pear, And on thy servants light: And show un - to thy children dear, Thy glory and thy might.
8. Lord, let thy grace and glo - ry stand On us thy servants thus: Con - firm the works we take in hand, And prosper them to us.
