

I walked in darkness

Music: Kathryn Rose
Words: Thomas Thurman

ed. K. Jaworski

I walked in darkness

Words: Thomas Thurman

Music: Kathryn Rose

Andante
mp I walked in dark - ness.____
mp I walked in dark-ness. Ma - ny a lone - ly mile,
mp

8
he - si - tant
my eyes and foot - steps he - si - tant and blind.____
mp

15
crescendo poco a poco
I sought a kind - ly light____ I did____ not find in land or o - cean, crescendo poco a poco

22
ask - ing all____ the while if light - less lives are ta - ken in____ ex - ex -

29 change for light e - ter - nal; still the³

change for light e - ter - nal, light e - ter - nal;

change for light e - ter - nal; still the 37 shades of sight would whis - per,

"Ev - en I shall see the light!"

shades of sight whis - per "I shall see the light!"

45

I ne - ver thought the light would look so strange.

I ne - ver thought the light would look so strange.

51

Not in a tem - ple, e - - cho - ing and awed,

Not in a tem - ple, e - - cho - ing and awed,

4
57

Nor in a pa - lace, glis - ten - ing and grand, Nor in my mf

64

home, nor a - ny friend - ly land. But dis - tant, dir - ty,
But dis - tant, dir - ty,

p

73

in a shed a - broad, I met a mai - den blood - y from a birth
I met a mai - den

mp

81

and in her arms, the light of all the earth.

rit.

Editor's notes:

- Score reformatted to short score throughout to minimise page turns and paper use.
- Bars 7, 62 and 67 rewritten from ♩+♩ to ♩. with a 'comma' breath