

Philanthropy

1. Je - sus the Sav - ior from a - bove, The Fath - er's deep de -

2. A - bove the high - est hea - vens far, Earth's low - er parts now

3. Pre - em - in - ence to Jes - us given, To fill all things in

4. Now Jes - us fills all things, we know; All things a - bove, and
5. Noth - ing but Jes - us now we view; Old things are lost, and

6. scend - ing love, Reached us the low - er parts of earth, And raised us

7. ris - en are. When God, who put our na - ture on, As - cen - ded,

8. earth and heaven, The dis - pen - sa - tion now has come, When God has

9. all be - low. That He fills all things, we are sure, Hence all things
10. all things new. He fills our heart, our eye, our ear, And nought be

11. to a heaven - ly birth. He who asc - ends to glo - ry is the

12. the tri - umph - ant man, Where thrones, dom - in - ions, powers, and an - gels

13. gather - ed all things home. All things in love are gath - ered in - to

14. now to us are pure. In faith's id - ea no vac - u - um we
15. Jes - us doth ap - pear. O ho - ly mys - te - ry! Here ends our

27

Tr. same, as hum - bled to the earth from hea - ven came.

C. fall Be - fore His face, as fil - ling all in all.

T. one, Where heaven and earth make one be - lov - ed Son.

B. find, want, For Our griefs, our sor - rows, as God's e - ter - nal mind. trou - bles, and com - plaint.