The Free Software Song
as Tenorlied

Text: Richard Stallman

Bulgarian folk song
arr: Benjamin Wand

Join us now and share the soft - ware; you'll be free, ha - ckers, you'll be free.
Hoar - ders can get piles of mo - ney; that is true, ha - ckers, that is true.
When we have e - nough free soft - ware at our call, ha - ckers, at our call,
Join us now and share the soft - ware; you'll be free, ha - ckers, you'll be free.

Join us now and share the soft - ware, you'll be free, ha - ckers, you'll be free.
But they can - not help their neigh - bors; that's not good, ha - ckers, that's not good.
we'll kick out those dir - ty li - cen - ses e - ver - more, ha - ckers, e - ver - more.
Join us now and share the soft - ware, you'll be free, ha - ckers, you'll be free.

For amateur choir. Since there are usually more men than women on tech conferences, I put the melody in the tenor part. Benjamin Wand, the FSF and the FSFE are interested in being notified when you publically perform the piece, but what so ever it is ok singing it in secret as well. Please check out http://www.gnu.org/music/free-software-song.html
