

Jeremy Taylor

Full of Wrath, his Threat'ning Breath

Humphrey Brailsford
(1658-1733)

Voice

Basso Continuo

5

Full of wrath, full of wrath, his threat' - ning

7

breath Belch-ing nought but chains and death, nought but chains and death,

9

Saul was ar - rest-ed, ar - rest - ed, ar - rest-ed in his way By a 12

voice, by a voice and light, That if a thou-sanddays Should join, join their rays

15

To beau-ti - fy a day It would not show so glo - ri-ous and so bright,

18

it would not show so glo - - - ri-ous and so bright, it would not show so

7 7 6

21

glo - ri-ous and so bright, it would not show so glo - - - ri-ous

24

and so bright.

28

On his a-maz-ed eyes it night did fling, That day might break, might break with-in,

31

And by these beams, by these beams of faith Make of him a child of wrath Be-come aves-sel

7

34

full of glo-ry. Lord, curb us, Lord, curb is in our dark and sin - ful

7 5 7 5

37

way, we hum - bly, hum - bly, hum - bly pray, When we down,

39

down, down, down, down, down, down, hor - rid pre - ci - pi - ces run With feet that thirst to be un - done, With feet that thirst to be un - done, That this may be _____ our sto - ry,

41

44

With feet that first to be un - done, With feet that thirst to be un - done, That this may be _____ our sto - ry.

2

46

7