

Flanders

Transcribed from The Middlesex Harmony, 1795.

Tr. Soprano
1. Since I have placed my trust in God, A refuge al - ways nigh, ___ Why should I, like a timorous bird, To distant mountains fly? ___ To distant mountains fly? Why
2. Behold, the wicked bend their bow, And ready fix their dart; ___ Lur - king in ambush to de - stroy The Man of upright heart, ___ The man of upright heart. Lur -

T. Tenor
3. When once the firm as - su - rance fails Which public faith im - parts, ___ 'Tis time for in - no - cense to fly ___ From such deceitful arts, From such deceitful arts. 'Tis
4. The Lord hath both a temple here, And righteous throne a - bove: ___ Whence he surveys the sons of men, And how their counsels move, And how their counsels move. Whence

B. Bass
5. If God, the righteous, whom he loves, For trial does cor - rect, ___ What must the sons of vi - o - lence, Whom he abhors, expect? Whom he abhors, expect? What
6. Snares fire and brimstone on their heads Shall in one tempest shower; ___ This dreadful mixture his rev - enge Into their cup shall pour, In - to their cup shall pour. This
7. The righteous Lord will righteous deeds, With signal fa - vor grace; ___ And to the up - right man dis - close The brightness of his face, The brightness of his face. And