

The Christian's Warrant

Transcribed from The Christian Harmonist, 1804.

1. Though troubles assail And dangers affright, Though friends should all fail And foes all u-nite; Yet one thing se-cures us, What-ev-er be-tide, The

2. The birds without barn Or storehouse are fed, From them let us learn To trust for our bread: His saints, what is fitting, Shall ne'er he denied, So

3. We may, like the ships, By tempest be tossed On pe-ri-lous deeps, But can-not be lost. Though Sa-tan en-ra-ges The wind and the tide, The

4. His call we o-bey Like A-bram of old, Not knowing our way, But faith makes us bold; For though we are strangers We have a good guide, And

5. When Sa-tan appears To stop up our path, And fill us with fears, We tri-umph by faith; He can-not take from us, Though oft he has tried, This

6. He tells us we're weak, Our hope is in vain, The good that we seek We ne'er shall ob-tain, But when such suggestions Our spirits have plied, This

7. No strength of our own, Or goodness we claim, Yet since we have known The Savior's great name; In this our strong to-wer For safety we hide, The

8. When life sinks apace And death is in view, This word of his grace Shall comfort us through: No fearing or doubting With Christ on our side, We

1. scripture assures us, The Lord will pro-vide. Yet one thing se-cures us, What-ev-er be-tide, The scripture assures us, The Lord will provide.

2. long as 'tis written, The Lord will pro-vide. His saints, what is fitting, Shall ne'er he de-nied, So long as 'tis written, The Lord will provide.

3. pro-mise en-ga-ges, The Lord will pro-vide. Though Sa-tan en-ra-ges The wind and the tide, The promise en-ga-ges, The Lord will provide.

4. trust in all dangers, The Lord will pro-vide. For though we are strangers We have a good guide, And trust in all dangers, The Lord will provide.

5. heart-cheering promise, The Lord will pro-vide. He can-not take from us, Though oft he has tried, This heart-cheering promise, The Lord will provide.

6. answers all questions, The Lord will pro-vide. But when such suggestions Our spirits have plied, This answers all questions, The Lord will provide.

7. Lord is our power, The Lord will pro-vide. In this our strong to-wer For safety we hide, The Lord is our power, The Lord will provide.

8. hope to die shouting, The Lord will pro-vide. No fea-ring or doub-ting With Christ on our side, We hope to die shouting, The Lord will provide.
