

Tryste Noel

A song for Christmastide

Words: Louise Imogen Guiney (1861-1920)

Music: Richard Runciman Terry (1865-1938)

Moderato ♩. = 72.

p poco cresc.

1. The Ox he op' - neth wide the Doore, And from the Snowe he
2. The Ox hath hush'd his voice, and bent Trewe eye of pi - ty

1. The Ox _____ he op' - neth wide the Doore, And
2. The Ox _____ hath hush'd his voice, The ox hath cresc. dim.

calls her inne; and he hath seen her smile there - for, Our o'er the Mow, and on his love - lier neck fore - spent, The calls her inne; and hush'd his voice,

p cresc.

La - dye with - out sinne. — Now soone from sleepe A Bles - sed lays her Browe. A - round her feet Full

f starre shall lepe, And soone ar - rive both King and Hind. A - warm and sweete, His bower - ie breath doth meek - ly dwell. A - con moto

dim e rall.

A - men. — But O the place could I but finde,
A - men. — But sore am I with vain tra - vél, men, A - men. — But O the place could I but finde, The men, A - men. — But sore am I with vain tra - vél, —

I but finde, could vain tra - vél

I but finde, The
vain tra - vél,

calando

O the place could sore am I with place sore could I but finde. —

sore with vain tra - vél. —

I sore with vain but finde. — sore with vain but tra - vél. —

place sore could I but finde. —
sore with vain tra - vél. —

pp

mf

cresc.

3. The Ox is host in Ju - da's stall, And host of more than

3. The Ox is host in Ju - da's stall, in

f dim.

on - ly one, for close she gath - er - eth with - al, Our Lord, her lyt - tel Ju - da's stall,

p cresc. f

Sonne. Glad Hind and King Their gifts may bring, Glad Hind and___

con moto

King Their gifts may bring, But would to - night my

dim. e rall.

teares were there: A - men, A - men!

calando pp

tween her bo - som and His Hayre.