Translation

Lord, who shall dwell in thy tabernacle, or who shall rest upon thy holy hill?
Even he that leadeth an uncorrupt life, and doeth the thing which is right, and speaketh the truth from his heart.
He that hath used no deceit in his tongue, nor done evil to his neighbour, and hath not slandered his neighbour.
He that setteth not by himself, but is lowly in his own eyes and maketh much of them that fear the Lord.
He that sweareth unto his neighbour and disappointeth him not, though it were to his own hindrance.
He that hath not given his money upon usury, nor taken reward against the innocent.
Whoso doeth these things shall never fall.

(Psalm 15, Book of Common Prayer)

Editorial Conventions

The nomenclature of the voice-parts follows the Tudor convention.
The prefatory staves show the original clef, staff signature, mensuration symbol and first note for each voice.
Editorial accidentals are placed above the notes concerned and remain operative throughout the bar.
Ligatures are denoted by the sign [—].
Repeat signs in the underlay have been expanded using italicised text.
The missing portions of the Tenor part have been reconstructed editorially in small notation.

Notes on the Readings of the Sources

The two bass parts have been reversed in the edition. In Tudor music the ‘primus bassus’ was typically the part that took the lowest note at cadences.

Source A has been used as the primary copy text with the two tenor gimell voices in bars 51–65 supplied from C and D. Probably none of the sources preserves White’s original underlay exactly, but B and E are the least altered, while C has fewer editorial interventions than A. These factors have informed the underlay decisions in this edition.

The date 1591 in C may be the year in which the music was copied; it does not relate to White himself.

The notes below are grouped by category and by source. Each reference to a bar or group of bars is separated by an oblique stroke. Within these references multiple readings in the same voice are separated by a comma and readings in different voices by a semicolon. The order within each entry is: (1) bar number(s); (2) voice; (3) reading of the source (with any subsequent bar numbers in brackets). Pitches are in capital letters, preceded by a number if necessary, e.g. <sup>2</sup>A = second note A in the bar or group of bars.
