

THOMAS RAVENSCROFT, "OF ALL THE BIRDS THAT EVER I SEE" (Deuteromelia, 1609, no. 7)

TREBLE

TENOR

BASSVS

Of all the birds that ev - er I see, the
 For all the day long she sits in a tree, and

Of all the birds long that ev - er I see, the
 For all the day long she sits in a tree, and

Of all the birds long that ev - er I see, the
 For all the day long she sits in a tree, and

5 10

Owle is the fayr - est in her de - gree, Te whow,
 when the night comes a - way flies she,

Owle is the fayr - est in her way de - gree, Te whit, to
 when the night comes a - way flies she,

Owle is the fayr - est in her de - gree, Te whit te whow, ij
 when the night comes a - way flies she,

15

sir knaue to thou, this song is well sung, I whom drinks thou. this song is well sung, I this song is well sung, I

20

make you a vow, and he is a knaue that drink - eth now. Nose,

make you a vow, and he is a knaue that drink - eth now. Nose,

make you a ___ vow, and he is a knaue that drink - eth now. Nose,

25

nose, nose, _____ nose, and who gave thee that iol - ly red

nose, nose, nose, and who gave mee this iol - ly red

nose, nose, _____ nose, and who gave thee that iol - ly red

30

nose? Nut - megs and cloues, and that gaue nose? Sin - a - mont, & Gin - ger, Nut - megs and Cloues, and that gaue

nose? Nut - megs and ___ cloues, and that gaue

Ravenscroft, "Of all the birds", p. 3

thee thy iol - ly red nose.

me my iol - ly red nose.

thee that iol - ly red nose.