So we all should spring in leaps in the thoughts of our hearts from strength to strength, from strength to strength, from strength to strength, from strength to strength,

So we all should spring in leaps in the thoughts of our hearts from strength to strength, from strength to strength, from strength to strength, from strength to strength,

So we all should spring in leaps in the thoughts of our hearts from strength to strength, from strength to strength, from strength to strength, from strength to strength,

So we all should spring in leaps in the thoughts of our hearts from strength to strength, from strength to strength, from strength to strength, from strength to strength,
