

Adapted from Alexander Pope

Ode on Music

No copyright. Transcribed from Humbert's Union Harmony, 1816.

G Major
Oliver Holden, 1792
(Revised 1800)

♩ = 80 Treble Solo

Tr.

'Tis thine, sweet power, to raise the thought sublime; Quell each rude passion and the heart refine; Quell each rude passion and the heart refine.

Bass Solo

B.

Soft are thy strains, as Gabriel's gent - lest string, as Gabriel's gentlest string, as Ga - briel's gentlest string.

Tenor Solo

T.

Soft are thy strains, as Ga - briel's gent - lest string, as Gabriel's gent - lest string, as Ga - briel's gentlest string.

Tr.

Soft are thy strains, Soft are thy strains, Soft are thy strains, as Ga - briel's gent - lest string, Calm as the brea - thing

T.

Soft are thy strains, Soft are thy strains, Soft are thy strains, as Ga - briel's gent - lest string, Calm as the

B.

Soft are thy strains, Soft are thy strains, Soft are thy strains, as Ga - briel's gent - lest string,

50

Tr. zephyrs, calm as the breathing, breathing zephyrs, Calm as the brea - thing zephyrs,

T. brea - thing zephyrs, breathing zephyrs, calm as the brea - thing, zephyrs, breathing, breathing, breathing zephyrs, Calm as the

B.

55

Tr.

T. brea - thing ze - phyr's of the spring.

B.