

Andalucian trad.,
transl. Douglas Brooks-Davies

Bells upon Bells (Campana sobre campana)

Andalucian trad.,
arr. DB-D

♩ = 120

Bells up---on bells are peal----- ing, But one bell sounds clear o'er

all,

all, o'er all, The birth of Je---sus re-- veal----- ing, Babe born to re--deem our

all,

Fall.

O bells of Beth-le-hem which reach the high-est heav'n, what news bring you? Leave your flocks and come, shep---- herds,swift-lycome, Bring some cheese and bring some wine, some wine! O bells of Beth-le-hem which reach the high-est heav'n, what news bring you? Bells up-on bells are peal-----ing, But two are clear-est as they peal-----ing, are peal-ing, ring, The birth of God-head re--veal-----ing, That is the mes-sage they bring. E'en the stars a--bove, e-en the stars a-bove, call you, shep---- herds, to that Ho-ly Babe, Call you to that Ho-ly Babe, the Son of God in all His love. Bells up-on bells are peal----- ing, But three sound loud--est in the peal--ing, peal--ing, wind. That Babe in cra-dle now sleep--- ing Shall die at the third hour for all mankind. O bells of Beth--le-- hem which touch the an-gels, What good news you bring!

Copyright © 2004 Douglas Brooks-Davies, arranger/translator. Published in accordance with the CPDL licence (<http://www.cpdl.org>).Ediiton may be freely performed, recorded, etc.
(Brooks-Davies, European Carols series)