

Psalm 50

S
A

1. The mighty God, th'e-ter-nal hath thus spoke, And all the world he will call and provoke! E'en from the east, and so forth to the west:
 2. Devouring fire shall go before his face, A tempest great shall round about him trace. Then shall he call the earth and heavens bright,
 3. Con-si-der this, ye that forget the Lord, And fear not when he threatens with his word, Lest without help he spoils you as a prey:

1. Out of Zion, which place he liketh best, God will appear, in beauty most ex-cel-lent, Our God will come before that long time be spent.
 2. To judge his folk with equity and right. Saying, Go to, and now my saints as-sem-ble; My pact they keep, their gifts do not dissemble.
 3. But he that offers thanks, praises alway, Saith the Lord God, and he that walketh this trace, I will teach him God's saving health to em-brace.
