

Now I see thy looks were feigned

Thomas Ford

Cantus

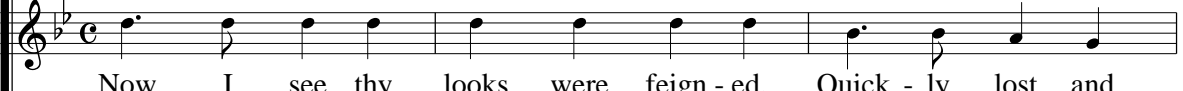

Now I see thy looks were feign-ed, Quick-ly lost and
Of thine eye I made my mir - ror, from thy beau - ty Feign'd ac - cept-ance when I ask - ed, Love - ly words with Now I see, O seem - ly cru - el, O - thers warm them Prime youth lasts not, age will fol - low, And make white those

Altus

Tenor

Now I see thy looks were feign - ed, Quick - ly lost and
Of thine eye I made my mir - ror, from thy beau - ty Feign'd ac - cept-ance when I ask - ed, Love - ly words with
Now I see, O seem - ly cru - el, O - thers warm them Prime youth lasts not, age will fol - low, And make white those

Bassus

④

quick - ly gain - ed. Soft thy skin like wool of we - thers, came my er - ror; All thy words I coun - ted wit - ty, cun - ning mask - ed, Ho - ly vows but heart un - ho - ly at my fu - el. Wit shall guide me in this dur - ance tress - es yel - low; Wrinkl - ed face for looks de - light - ful

quick - ly gain - ed. Soft thy skin like wool of we - thers, came my er - ror; All thy words I coun - ted wit - ty,
cun - ning mask - ed, Ho - ly vows but heart un - ho - ly
at my fu - el. Wit shall guide me in this dur - ance
tress - es yel - low; Wrinkl - ed face for looks de - light - ful

7

Heart un - con - stant, light as feath - ers. Tongue un - trus - ty, All thy sighs I deem - ed pi - ty; Thy false tears that Wretch - ed man! my trust was fol - ly. Li - ly - white and Since in love is no as - sur - ance. Change thy pas - ture, Shall aq - quaint the dame de - spite - ful And whe time shall sub - tle - sight - ed, Wan - ton will with change de - light - ed.

10

 me ag - griev - ed First of all my trust de - ceiv - ed.
 pret - ty wink - ing, Sol - emn vows, but sor - ry think - ing.
 take thy plea - sure, Beau - ty is a fad - ing trea - sure.
 date thy glo - ry Then too late thou shall be sor - ry.

13

Si - ren plea - sant, foe to rea - son, Cu - pid plague thee for thy trea - son.