

Psalm 8

No copyright. Transcribed from The Responary, 1795.

Treble 1
1. O Lord, our heav'n - ly King, Thy name — is all di -
2. When to the worlds — on high, I raise — my won - dering

Treble 2
3. When I sur - vey — the stars, And all their shin - ing
4. Lord, what is worth - less man, That Thou shouldst love — him

Tenor
5. Thine hon - ors crown his head, While beasts, like slaves, — o -
6. How rich Thy boun - ties are! And won - drous are — Thy

Bass
7. Out of the mouths — of babes And suck - lings Thou canst di -
8. O Lord, our heav'n - ly King, Thy name is all di - vine; Thy glo - ries round the earth are in spread, — And eyes, And see the moon, com - plete in light, — A -

Tr. 1

Tr. 2
forms, Lord, what is man, that worth - less thing, — A - so? Next to Thine an - gels is he placed, — And

T.
8 bey, And birds that cut the air with wings, — And ways: Of dust and worms Thy power can frame — A

B. draw Sur - pris - ing hon - ors to earth Thy are name, — And vine; Thy glo - ries round the earth are spread, — And

Tr. 1
10 o'er the heav'ns they shine, And o'er — the heav'ns — they shine.
dorn the dark - some skies, A - dorn — the dark — some skies.

Tr. 2
kin to dust and worms, A - kin to dust — and worms.
lord of all be - low, And lord of all — be - low.

T.
8 fish that cleave the seas, And fish — that cleave — the sea.
mon - u - ment of praise, A mon - u - ment — of praise.

B. strike the world with awe, And strike the world with awe.
o'er the heav'ns they shine, And o'er the heav'ns they shine.