

Lord, Not To Us

Editor: John Henry Fowler

Revision: 2 - 14 - 2003

Henry Purcell

(1659 - 1695)

$\text{♩} = 100$

Lord, not to us, Lord, not to us, but to thy name we give the praise we

5

us, but to thy name we give the praise we owe, but to thy name we give us, Lord not to us, but to thy name we give owe, Lord, not to us, but to thy name, to thy name we give the praise we owe, to thy free good - ness and thy truth, Whence all, all the praise we owe, to thy free good - ness and thy truth, Whence all, all the praise we owe, to thy free good - ness and thy truth, Whence all, all our bless - ings flow; To thy free good - ness and thy truth, Whence all, all our bless - ings flow; To thy free good - ness and thy truth, Whence all, all our bless - ings flow; To thy free good - ness and thy truth, Whence all, all our bless - ings flow; whence all, all our bless - ings flow.

our bless - ings flow, whence all, all our bless - ings flow.

our bless - ings flow; whence all, all our bless - ings flow.