2. Thou sun with golden beams,
And moon with paler rays;
Ye starry lights, ye twinkling flames,
Shine to your Maker's praise.

3. He built those worlds above,
And fixed their wondrous frame;
By his command they stand or move,
And ever speak his name.

4. By all his works above
His honors be expressed;
But saints that taste his saving love
Should sing his praises best.

5. Let vigorous youth engage
To sound his praises high:
While growing babes, and withering age,
Their feebler voices try.

6. United zeal be shown
His wondrous fame to raise:
God is the Lord; his name alone
Deserves our endless praise.

7. Let nature join with art,
And all pronounce him blest;
But saints, that dwell so near his heart,
Should sing his praises best.
