

Offertorium

(May be sung as an Introit)

Frank Adlam

Andante

p

1. O Je - su, Thou the beau - ty art of an - gel worlds a - bove; Thy
2. O most sweet Je - su, hear the sighs which un - to Thee we send; To —
3. Ce - les - tial sweet - ness un - al - loyed, who eat Thee hun - ger still; Who
4. A - bide with us, and let Thy Light shine, Lord, on ev - ery heart; Dis -
5. Je - su, our Love and Joy, to Thee, the Vir - gin's on - ly — Son, all —

5

Name is mu - sic to the heart, in - flam - ing it with love.
Thee our in - most spi - rit cries, to Thee our prayers as - cend.
drink of Thee still fee a void which on - ly Thou canst fill. A - men.
pel the dark - ness of our night, and joy to all im - part.
might, and praise, and glo - ry be, while end - less a - ges — run.