Robert A. Glenn (1844-1928) was born in Salem, North Carolina, serving as Lieutenant in Company I of the 22nd North Carolina Infantry during the Civil War. After the War, he relocated to Illinois to become a music teacher and taught in Flora and Mcleansboro. He later left teaching and opened Glenn's Music Store in Murphysboro. He was an active member of the First Methodist church of Murphysboro. After ill health forced his retirement, he and his wife moved to Lawrenceville. He published a number of music collections for use in churches, singing schools, and music conventions. Some of his hymns and songs appeared in other music collections published in Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. One of his most famous songs is "My Old Cottage Home" which was later recorded by the Carter Family and is popular with bluegrass artists.

Now the bells are ringing,
Come and go with me;
Join with us in singing
This our merry glee.

*Come, come, come, come,
Hear the chiming bell,
Bim, bom, bim, bom,
bim, bom, bell.*

List the joyful pealing
Stealing thro' the air;
Oh, what joyful tidings
It so sweetly bears.

Each one now to duty,
Linger not behind;
Be here in your places
When the old bells chime.

R. A. Glenn

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
