2 Thou sun with dazzling rays,
And moon that rules the night,
Shine to your Maker's praise,
With stars of twinkling light:
His power declare, Ye floods on high,
And clouds that fly In empty air.

5. Let all the earth-born race,
And monsters of the deep
The fish that cleave the seas,
Or in their bosom sleep;
From sea and shore Their tribute pay,
And still display Their Maker's power.

8. Ye kings and judges, fear
The Lord, the sovereign King;
And while you rule us here,
His heav'nly honors sing;
Nor let the dream Of power and state
Make you forget His power supreme.

3. The shining worlds above
In glorious order stand,
Or in swift courses move,
By his supreme command:
He spake the word, And all their frame
From nothing came, To praise the Lord.

6. Ye vapors, hail, and snow,
Praise ye th' almighty Lord,
And stormy winds that blow,
To execute his word:
When lightnings shine, Or thunders roar,
Let earth adore His hand divine.

9. Virgins and youths, engage
To sound his praise divine,
While infancy and age
Their feeble voices join:
Wide as he reigns His name be sung
By every tongue In endless strains.

4. He moved their mighty wheels
In unknown ages past,
And each his word fulfils
While time and nature last:
In diff'rent ways His works proclaim
His wondrous name, And speak his praise.

7. Ye mountains near the skies,
With lofty cedars there,
And trees of humbler size,
That fruit in plenty bear;
Beasts wild and tame, Birds, flies, and worms,
In various forms, Exalt his name.

10. Let all the nations fear
The God that rules above;
He brings his people near,
And makes them taste his love:
While earth and sky Attempt his praise,
His saints shall raise His honors high.
