

Thine Eyes Still Shined For Me

From "English Lyrics" - Set 4 - Number 1
Words by Ralph Waldo Emerson - (1803-1882)
Dedicated "To Dolly"

Editor: John Henry Fowler
(Revision: 6 - 5 - 2008)

Charles Hubert Hastings Parry
(1848 - 1918)

Lento espressivo.

♩ = 70

mf

4

mf

Thine eyes still shined for me, Though cresc.

7

far I lone - ly roved the land or sea: As I be - dim.

p

10

- hold yon eve - ning star, _____ Which yet be-holds not me.

13

mf
This morn I climbed the mis - ty hill, _____ And roamed the 16

pas - tures through; How danced thy form _____ be - fore my path _____

19 poco rit.

— A - midst the deep-eyed dew !

poco rit. mf 3 3

22 p Poco animando

When the red - bird spread his sa - ble

25 crescendo poco a poco

wing, And showed his side of flame; When the 28

rose - bud ripen - ed to the rose, In both cresc.

31

rit. a tempo dim. p rit.

I read thy name, in both I read thy

rit. a tempo dim. rit.

36

name.

p