

Lexington (1770)

1. My right - eous judge, my grac - ious God, Hear when I
2. Let judg - ment not again - st me pass, Be - hold, Thy
3. Look down in pi - ty, Lord, and see The migh - ty
4. Teach me to do Thy ho - ly will, And lead me
5. Then shall my soul no more com - plain, The temp - ter

7
Tr. spread my hands a - broad, And cry for mer - cy from Thy
C. ser - vant pleads Thy grace. Should just - ice call us to Thy
T. woes that bur - den me; Down to the dust my life is
B. to Thy heaven - ly hill. Let the good spir - it of Thy shall then rage in vain. And flesh, that was my foe be -

13
Tr. throne, O make Thy truth and mer - cy known!
C. bar, No man a - live is guilt - less there,
T. brought, Like one long bur - ied and for - got.
B. love fore, Con - duct me to Thy courts a - bove.
Shall nev - er vex my spir - it more.