

Middlesex

No copyright. Transcribed from The Union Harmony, 1793.

F Major
Oliver Holden, 1793

Treble
1. The Lord of glo - ry reigns, He reigns on high; His robes of

Tenor
2. God is th'e - ter - nal King: Thy foes in vain Raise their re -

Bass
3. Ye tem-pests, rage no more; ye floods, be still; And the mad

Tr.
state are strength and ma - jes - ty: This wide cre - a - tion rose at His com -

T. bel - lions to con-found Thy reign; In vain the storms, in vain the floods a -

B. world sub - mis - sive to His will: Built on His truth, the church must ev - er

Tr.
mand, Built by His word and 'stab-lished by His hand: Long stood His throne ere

T. rise, and roar, and toss their waves a - gainst the skies: Foam - ing at heav'n, they

B. stand; Firm are His pro - mi - ses, and strong His hand: See His own sons, when

Tr.
He be - gan cre - a - tion, And His own God-head is the firm - foun - da - tion.

T.
rage with wild com - mo - tion, But heav'n's high ar - ches scorn the swel - ling o - cean.

B.
they ap - pear be - fore Him, Bow at his foot-stool, and with fear a - dore Him.