The Incarnation

Transcribed from Songs of Zion, 1821

Treble or Tenor Solo

Long had the voice of pro–phe–cy __ foretold Mes–si – ah's ____ advent, the in–car – na – tion of ___ the Son of God.

Un– to us a child is born, a son is given. On him shall lie the rule of nations, and his name ___ shall be the wonderful, the coun–se – lor, The mighty God, the ev –er – las – ting sire, the prince of peace.

The mighty God,

Shall still _____ in – crease ___ for–ev – er. He shall sit on Da–vid's throne and king–dom

His government and peace

ev –er–more. He shall sit on Da – vid's throne ___ and king–dom ev–er–more. With judgment and with justice, he shall sway his righteous scepter: All shall he or – der, all es – ta – blish firm. I, the Lord, have said, and will __ per–form my word. Em–man–u–el, hail! hail! hail thou King of glo–ry, hail! hail! Hail thou King of glo – ry, hail! Hail to our world!

Go forth! from conquering to con –

Hail to our hearts! Matchless in majesty and might; Go forth from conquering to conquer, from conquering to con –

Go forth!

–quer. Ride on, Ride on, ___ O King Mes–si–ah, to possess the sove – reign rule of all. Ride on, O King __ of

_____

Edited by B. C. Johnston, 2017

1. Measure 12: Slur added to accomodate text.
2. Measures 58 & 92 guessed at: covered by fold in scanned pages,
3. Meaasures 96-98: words have too many *Hail!*s.
4. Measure 119, Tenor: notes tied to fit words.
5. Measure 143, Tenor: last note changed from eighth-note to quarter-note.