

Though my carriage be but careless

Thomas Weelkes
(1576-1623)

Soprano
 Though my car-riage be but care-less, though my looks be of the
 No, my wits are not so wild, but a gen-tle soul may

Tenor
 8 Though my car-riage be but care-less, though my looks be of the
 No, my wits are not so wild, but a gen-tle soul may

Bass
 Though my car-riage be but care-less, though my looks be of the
 No, my wits are not so wild, but a gen-tle soul may

S
 5 stern-est, yet my pas-sions be com- pare-less, when I love, yoke me, nor my heart so hard com- pil-ed, but it melts,

T
 8 stern-est, yet my pas-sions be com- pare-less, when I love, when I yoke me, nor my heart so hard com- pil-ed but it melts, but it

B
 stern-est, yet my pas-sions be com- pare-less,
 yoke me, nor my heart so hard com- pil-ed

S
 10 when I love, when I love, I love
 but it melts, but it melts, if love

T
 8 love, when I love, when I love, when I love I love, I love, I melts, but it melts, but it melts, but it melts if love, if love, if

B
 when I love, I love, I love, I love, I but it melts, but it melts, but it melts, but it melts if love, if love, if

S
 1. in ear-nest. nest.
 pro-voke me. me.

T
 8 love, I love, I love, in ear-nest. When I nest.
 love, if love, if love pro-voke me. But it me.
 1. 2.

B
 love, I love, in ear-nest. nest.
 love, if love pro-voke me. me. 2.