

Florence

Transcribed from The Middlesex Harmony, 1803.

Tr. 5 10

1. Immense compassion reigns In our Im-ma-nuel's heart, When he descends to act A me-di-a-tor's part: He is a

T. 8

2. In Je-sus we be-hold His Fa-ther's glorious face, Shining for-ev-er bright, With mild and lovely rays; Th'e-ter-nal

B.

3. At length the Lord the Judge His aw-ful throne ascends, And drives the re-bels far From fa-vor-ites and friends: Then shall the

4. But when for works of peace The great Re-dee-mer comes, What gentle cha-rac-ters, What ti-tles he as-sumes! Light of the

Tr. 15 20 25

1. friend and bro-ther too; Di-vine-ly kind, di-vine-ly true. Di-vine-ly kind, di-vine-ly true.

T. 8

2. God's e-ter-nal Son In-he-rits and par-takes the throne. In-he-rits and par-takes the throne.

B.

3. saints com-ple-tely prove The heights and depths of all his love. The heights and depths of all his love.

4. world, and life of men; Nor will he bear those names in vain. Nor will he bear those names in vain.