

Thomas Campion
(1567-1620)

Jack and Joan

Charles Wood
(1866-1926)

Unison Song

Allegro.

Voice mp lightly

Piano f marcato mp

Jack and Joan they Well can they judge of Joan can call by think no ill, but lov - ing live, and mer - ry still; do their week - days' nap - py ale, and tell at large a win - ter tale; climb up to the name her cows, and deck her win - dows with green boughs; she can wreaths and work, and pray de - vout - ly on the ho - ly day. Skip and trip it ap - ple loft, and turn the crabs till they be soft. Tib is all the nose - gays make, and trim with plums a bri - dal cake. Jack knows what brings

5 10 mf mf

15

on the green, and help to choose the Sum-mer Queen; lash out at a fa-ther's joy, and lit-tle Tom the mo-ther's boy. All their plea-sure gain or loss; and his long flail can stout-ly toss, make the hedge which coun-try feast, their sil-ver pen-ny with the best.

 is con-tent; and care, to pay their year-ly rent.
 o-thers break, and ev-er thinks what he doth speak.

20

4. Now you court-ly

25

dames and knights, that stu-dy on-ly strange de-lights; though you scorn the 30 mf

home-spun grey, and re - vel in your rich ar-ray: though your tongues dis -

35 cresc.

sem - ble deep, and can your heads from dan - ger keep; yet for all your

f

pomp and train, se - cu - rer lives the sil - ly swain.

40 ff poco rall.

Yet for all your pomp and train, se - cu - rer lives the sil - ly swain.