

Agincourt carol

Anonymous (début XV siècle)

De - o gra - ti - as An - gli - a Red - de pro vi -

8

cto - ri - a Our king went forth to Nor - man - dy With He set a siege, for sooth to say, To Then went him forth, our King come - ly, In 15

grace and might of chi - val - ry; There God for Har - fleur town with roy - al ar - ray; That town he
A - gin - court he fought man - ly; Through grace of 20

him _____ wrought mar - v'lous - ly, Where - fore Eng - land _____ may won _____ and made _____ af - fray That France shall rue _____ till God _____ most mar - v'lous - ly He had _____ both field _____ and 25

call and cry: De - o gra - ti - as.
Doom - es - cto - ry; day; De - o gra - ti - as.
vi - cto - ry;

30

De - o gra - ti - as An - gli -
De - o gra - ti - as An - gli -
De - o gra - ti - as An - gli -

35

a Red - de pro vi - cto - ri - a.
a Red - de pro vi - cto - ri - a.
a Red - de pro vi - cto - ri - a.

4. There lordes, earies and baron
Were slain and ta'en_ and that full soon;
And some were brought into London
With joy and bliss and great renown:
Deo gratias.

5. Almighty God he keep our king,
His people and all his well-willing,
And give them grace withouten ending;
Then may we call and safely sing :
Deo gratias/